

79th Annual General Meeting & Convention

Kikiwak Inn — Opaskwayak (The Pas), Manitoba

October 17th 2022

Our northern shipping corridor depends on the support of all stakeholders. We will take an in-depth look into the future of the Port of Churchill and the Hudson Bay Rail, under new regional ownership, and the positive impact this change of ownership will have on northern communities, First Nations, industry, grain producers and shippers.

Expected attendance will be 75-100 people, made up of representatives from farm organizations, First Nations, industry, local government, and rail transportation.

All sponsors will be acknowledged from the podium and also displayed on an electronic billboard throughout the convention.
